

Harmonica Blues
(O What A Wonderful Morning)

Strumming: ↓↓↑↑↓↑

C G7
O what a wonderful morning, o what a beautiful world.
C
Just have a look at the dawning and listen for early bird.

C G7
O what a wonderful morning, o what a beautiful life,
C
see how the daylight is forming the base of our survive.

F C
Sunshine and raining bring plants for to grow,
G7 C C7
waterfowl and fishes needs rivers to flow,
F C
fox, fawn and wild boar want live in the woods, G7 C
we shouldn't tread them for goods.

C G7
O what a wonderful morning, o what a beautiful world.
C
Just have a look at the dawning and listen for early bird.

F C
We need to keep track for all form of life,
G7 C C7
it is the base just for our own survive.
F C
If we wouldn't do it we soon get them lose,
G7 C
the world and it's harmonica blues.

C G7
O what a wonderful morning, o what a beautiful life,
C
see how the daylight is forming the base of our survive.
